- The Texas Open Meetings Act does not require a public comment period during an open meeting. However, it is the practice of the Texas Juvenile Probation Commission Board to allow public comment at each board meeting to facilitate public input by interested persons. Public comments will typically be taken after each board agenda item so members of the public are encouraged to attend the full board meeting if they wish to comment on a particular agenda item. In the event a member of the public was unable to provide testimony after a particular agenda item or would like to make additional comments at the conclusion of the meeting, they may do so at that time. The Texas Juvenile Probation Commission Board reserves the right to limit the time and scope of public comments as deemed appropriate by the Board.
- The Board of the Texas Juvenile Probation Commission reserves the right to take formal board action on any posted agenda item if necessary.
- Items may not necessarily be considered in the order in which they appear on the agenda.
- The Board of the Texas Juvenile Probation Commission may go into closed, executive session on any posted agenda item if consultation with legal counsel is deemed necessary and authorized by the Texas Open Meetings Act as codified in Texas Government Code Section 551.071.
